

QUICK ACCESS CLINIC EVALUATION 2017/ 18

120

The number of quick access sessions that occurred between September 2017 and March 2018. 160 clients attended sessions.

59%

The percentage of sessions that occurred at Point in Time's Haliburton office. We also offered sessions at our Minden office as well as home or school visits as needed.

48%

The percentage of clients who got what they needed from one Quick Access session. 52% were referred on to Point in Time services. 12 clients returned to the Quick Access clinic twice.

47

The number of clients referred to Brief Therapy services from Quick Access Clinic. 19 clients were referred to Family Support, 4 to Crisis, 3 to Early Intervention and 2 to High School Clinic

66%

The percentage of youth and parents attending Quick Access sessions that were considered "clinically distressed" based on their Outcome Rating Scales. 80% of children attending were considered "clinically distressed".

92%

The percentage of Session Rating Scales that indicate that our workers have a positive therapeutic alliance with clients.