

Community Partner Evaluation 2021

What PinT is doing well

"Provides many services for families and children and youth at different developmental need. Services are community-based and integrated with other service providers. Point in Time is a leader for new initiatives and modalities when needs are identified in the community."

This number significantly increases with each community partner survey indicating community partners are aware of this service model.

94%
AWARE OF
QUICK ACCESS
SERVICE

Reasons for recommending PinT

- diverse services/programs offered
- quality of services, staff flexibility and privacy
- client/family needing support

"Professional service and areas of expertise are broad, so there are services for the many issues facing our clientele. Point in Time staff are approachable, understanding and are knowledgeable about our youth and what approaches/solutions will help in any situation."

One respondent said...

91%
AGREED

Point in Time provides high quality services and achieves positive outcomes for children, youth and families.